Aquincum, the capital of Lower Pannonia

Pannonia Inferior (125 AD)
Huns, Avars and Magyars

Territory under Hunnic control circa 450 CE

Avar Khaganate around 582–612 AD
Tatar Havoc
Center of Renaissance culture

Buda and Pest

Matthias Corvinus
Ottoman empire

- Ottoman period started in 13th century
- Southeast Europe, Western Asia and North Africa
- From 1541-1699
- Suleiman the Magnificent
- The Habsburg Kingdom of Hungary, the Ottoman Empire and Transylvania
Buildings from the Ottomans

- Király Baths
- Tomb of Gul Baba
- Rudas Baths
Siege of Buda

- 1686, Poland and the Holy Roman Empire
- 1873, with the name 'Budapest' given to the new capital
- co-capital of the Austro-Hungarian Empire, that dissolved in 1918
World War I

Erzsébet Bridge, 1915

National Theatre Blaha Lujza Ter, 1917
Interwars Period

Miklos Horthy’s arrival to Budapest, 16 Nov 1919

Bela Kun in Budapest, 1 May 1919
World War II

Demolished Margarit Bridge, 1944

Sovietic Army at József Boulevar, 1945
Post-War Period

Revolution of 1956

Erzsébet ter, 1968
Republic of Hungary

Hősök tere, 16 Jun 1989

First Hungarian Elections, 25 March 1990